Campus To Corporate

Entrepreneurial Thinking

The 'Campus to Corporate' series of workshops conducted earlier this year was met with strong positive response. And this month, we're bringing out its third installment. After having moderated the two previous sessions, the Director of Engagement Mantras, Lt. Col. Ajay Bhattacharyya will be the key Speaker for the session, titled 'Entrepreneurial Thinking'.

Lt. Col Bhattacharyya has been a Director at Confederation of Indian Industry (CII), leading its Knowledge Initiative verticals globally in Innovation, Industrial R&D, and Higher Education.

He has successfully conducted training programs in areas of Organization Behavior, Team Building, Leadership, Personal Effectiveness, Project Management, Simulation Exercises and War Games.

We are grateful for the immense support shown by Lt. Col Bhattacharyya, as well as program director Dr. Ajay Jain for coordinating this series.
