EDITOR'S NOTE

Dear Reader,

Over the past few months, we've been brainstorming about how we could make our community feel proud of our achievements. We've had our little victories through successful initiatives like the Workshop series on Campus, and Alumni get togethers. The past month too witnessed a successful interactive talk.

Now, we're planning something a little more ambitious. We want you to show off your lineage through exclusive merchandise. But before we can do that, we want you to vote for a design. Take a look at the designs that we have created and vote for your choice. You could send us an email, or follow the link at the end of the section to cast your e-vote.

We're looking forward to your response!

Shaheed Bhagat Singh College Alumni Association is now certified to accept donations u/s 80G of the Income Tax Act 1961.

Actor

Born 16 January 1985, Sidharth Malhotra was schooled at Delhi's Don Bosco School and Naval Public School, and later attended Shaheed Bhagat Singh College.

At the age of 18, Sidharth began a career as a model. Dissatisfied with the profession, he quit and subsequently assisted Karan Johar on the 2010 film My Name Is Khan. He made his acting debut with Johar's comedy-drama Student of the Year (2012), for which he received a Filmfare Award for Best Male Debut nomination. In 2014, Malhotra portrayed leading roles in two commercially successful films—the romantic comedy Hasee Toh Phasee and the thriller Ek Villain.

BASICOLON

It's election time once again!

Coined by Prof Sydney Rebeiro, the word Basicolon is a combination of letters from the name of the college, with a suffix to denote belonging.

Presented here, are three concepts for designs for printed merchandise for the Alumni Association. We want you to pick your favourite, and then head over to the polling booth to cast your vote.

And the candidates are:

1. Traditional Look

The silhouette of legend after which the college was named.

2. Education & Growth

Considered one of the best, and perhaps one of the most under-rated colleges of Delhi University, perhaps a more truer representation of the outlook of the college.

3. Informal and Abstract

Free spirited and casual, this one may appear to be. But don't let it fool you! Look carefully, and you will find the inspiration behind this one - the hat worn by the martyr, Bhagat Singh. Perhaps the closest to our own personalities.

So which one is your pick? Tell us by voting in our online poll.
